

King's Academy Binfield and King's Academy Oakwood
English/Media Teacher
KGA MPR/UPR

Applications welcomed from ECTs
For September 2024

King's Academy Binfield (KAB) is now looking to appoint a highly motivated, dynamic and innovative teacher of English and Media to join our well-resourced and high achieving team of 11 teachers. This opportunity would suit an early career teacher (ECT) as well as a more experienced candidate.

Applicants will be joining a faculty that:

- Seeks opportunities to work collaboratively across the faculty through dedicated curriculum time which is built into timetabled hours for staff each week
- Is passionate about subject specific CPD
- Is motivated to look for opportunities to improve the well-being of its staff
- Understands the importance of curriculum design and delivery
- Is reflective and focused on improving teaching and learning at all levels
- Has a fantastic modern library resource to support student learning
- Offers English Language, English Literature and Media at A-level.
- Is developing a GCSE Media studies curriculum

Our all-through school opened in a superb new building in September 2018 and we have grown year on year. In addition to the secondary phase, we also have two primary phases set across two sites, King's Academy Binfield (KAB) and King's Academy Oakwood (KAO). From September 2023, we will have students from year N to year 6 in primary and year 7 through to year 11. Our new 6th form provision, KAB6, opened in September 2023.

Applicants should be excellent teachers and have the ability to motivate, inspire and lead students to excel. The successful candidate will be a team player and will get stuck in and involve themselves in the wider aspects of academy life.

King's Academy Binfield and King's Academy Oakwood are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young students and expect all staff to share this commitment. The successful applicant will need to undertake an Enhanced DBS check.
